

Cat, Bramble and Heron

Once upon a time there were three friends Cat Bramble Heron lived lake Early one morning seek their fortunes First slithered through grass but found rusty next sneaked along wall fishbone finally flew down road where spied gold divided one two bags decided hide beak high unfortunately reflection thought saw brother hello opened scattered rain crept

Mr Mouse out stole hedgerows thief to this very day waiting outside hole grabs snatches legs standing still water staring forever looking lost
