

The King and Queen had a beautiful baby girl. They named her Snow White.

Snow White grew up to be a beautiful young woman.

Snow White had a step mother. She was very vain.

Snow White's step mother wanted her dead but the huntsman did not kill her.

Snow White ran away and came to a little cottage.

The dwarves found Snow White asleep in their cottage.

Snow White looked after the seven dwarves.

The step mother found out that she had been tricked.

The step mother poisoned Snow White with a magic apple.

The dwarves lay Snow White in a glass coffin.

One day a Prince came by. He kissed Snow White and she opened her eyes.

Snow White and the Prince were married. They lived happily ever after.
