

Rapunzel

One day, a man and his wife were walking past a witch's garden. They were so hungry that they took some of the witch's lettuce.

1. Where were the man and his wife walking?

Past the castle.

☐

Past the witch's garden.

☐

Past the river.

Across the bridge.

2. Why did the man and his wife take the witch's lettuce?

Soon, they were hungry again, and the man went to the witch's garden for more lettuce. But this time the witch saw him.

"You will be punished for taking my lettuce," said the witch.

"I will take your first baby away from you!"

3. Who went back to the witch's garden?

The wife.

The man.

The goblin.

The farmer.

4. What did the witch tell the man she would take from him?

Not long after, the man and his wife had a baby girl. Unfortunately, as soon as the witch heard about the new baby, she tiptoed into her bedroom in the middle of the night and took her away!

“I will call you Rapunzel” said the witch.

5. When did the witch take the baby girl?

In the middle of the night.

☐

Early one morning.

One sunny afternoon.

Long, long ago.

6. What did the witch call the baby girl?

The wicked witch locked Rapunzel high up in a tower. The tower had no door and only one window for Rapunzel to look out of. Everyday, the witch would visit Rapunzel and call “Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your golden hair.” And every day, Rapunzel would throw her long, golden hair out of the window for the witch to climb up.

7. How often did the witch visit Rapunzel?

Every week.

Every day.

Every year.

Every month.

8. What did the witch tell Rapunzel to do with her golden hair?

One day, a prince came riding past the tower. When he heard a girl singing, he looked up and saw Rapunzel at the window.

Then, along came the witch. The prince heard her call to Rapunzel and watched as she climbed up Rapunzel's golden hair and into the tower.

After the witch had gone away, the prince went to the tower and called "Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your golden hair." And Rapunzel threw her golden hair out of the window and the prince climbed up.

9. Who came riding by?

A king.

A knight.

A prince.

An old man.

10. What did the prince do after the witch had gone?

When the prince met Rapunzel he immediately fell in love and promised to think of a plan to help Rapunzel escape.

The next day, the witch came to see Rapunzel and as she was climbing up, she tugged too hard on Rapunzel's hair.

"Ouch!" cried Rapunzel. "The prince did not hurt me when he climbed up."

When the witch heard that the prince had visited Rapunzel she became very angry and she cut off all of Rapunzel's beautiful hair.

11. What did the prince promise Rapunzel?

To bring her some apples.

☐

To visit her every day.

☐

To be her best friend.

To help her escape.

12. Why did the witch cut off Rapunzel's hair?

The next day, the prince went to see Rapunzel again. He called up to the window,

“Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your golden hair!”

Soon after, Rapunzel’s beautiful hair came down from the window and the prince climbed up. To his horror, the wicked witch was waiting at the window and with all her strength, she threw the prince to the bottom of the tower. Unfortunately, as the poor prince fell, he hurt his eyes on some prickly thorns.

13. Who was waiting for the prince at the top of the tower?

Rapunzel

A fairy queen

The wicked witch

☐

A giant

14. How did the prince hurt his eyes?

Before the prince had time to get up, the wicked witch whisked Rapunzel away.

The prince searched far and wide but he could not find Rapunzel anywhere. But then, just as he was losing all hope, he heard a girl singing. “Rapunzel,” he cried “is it you?”

“Yes!” called Rapunzel.

Rapunzel was so happy to see the prince that she started to cry. Her tears fell into the prince’s eyes and all at once, his eyes were healed.

15. Why did Rapunzel start to cry?

Rapunzel told the prince that the wicked witch had died and she would never be locked up in a tower ever again.

The prince took Rapunzel back to his palace and very soon, they were married. And so it was that Rapunzel and her prince lived happily ever after.
